SHRI KRISHNA TO ARJUNA · KURUKSHETRA ॐ CHAPTER 2 · VERSE 41

व्यवसायात्मिका बुद्धिरेकेह कुरुनन्दन ।
बहुशाखा ह्यनन्ताश्च बुद्धयोऽव्यवसायिनाम् ॥ २-४१ ॥

vyavasāyātmikā buddhir ekeha kuru-nandana / bahu-śākhā hy anantāś ca buddhayo 'vyavasāyinām

"O joy of the Kurus, on this path the resolute mind is ONE. The minds of the irresolute are MANY-BRANCHED and endless."

EKĀ · ONE · THEN MANY

ONE TRUNK. THEN BRANCHES.

The Gita's image, and Velumani's rule for business.

KEY WORDS

vyavasāya	firm resolve; in Hindi today, business
ekā	one, single-pointed
bahu-śākhā	many-branched
ananta	endless, never complete
avyavasāyin	one without resolve

3 BRANCHES
Diversify, only once the trunk can carry them.

2 ONE TRUNK
Focus on one thing, for years, until it succeeds.

बहुशाखा · many branches
No trunk: spreads wide, never grows tall.

1 ROOTS
Vyavasāya: a firm decision, made once.

A BUSINESS IS A RESOLVE

The Gita's word for resolve, vyavasāya, is the everyday Hindi word for business. By its name, a venture is a decision you stick to.

MANY BRANCHES = ENDLESS

Ten side-projects each get a tenth of your time and money. None finishes. Krishna's word for that mind: ananta, endless.

TRUNK FIRST, CROWN LATER

Velumani: succeed first in one thing, then diversify. Branches grow from a strong trunk; a bush never becomes a tree.

THE PROOF IS IN THE NAME

Thyro-care began with thyroid tests alone, scaled that one thing nationwide, and only then branched into wider diagnostics.
